What is Educational Travel ?

A lot of people think that Educational Travel is just a fancy name for a sightseeing tour. But nothing could be further from the truth. True Educational Travel is a carefully planned combination of tours, site visits and hands-on learning opportunities, built around clear learning objectives.

Through Educational Travel, students:

- Actually see and enrich their knowledge of places and works of art they've learned about in the classroom.
- Gain a deeper understanding of history and culture than a book can ever convey.
- Get the chance to try out the languages they've studied with native speakers.
- Build independence and confidence as they explore new places and local customs.

Perhaps most important of all, students gain new insights into their own culture, and a more global perspective - so important in today's interconnected world.

We - ExoAsia Travel have realized the insights and be willing to help.

What is M.I.C.E in our opinion?

Motivation, Inspiration, Confidence, Enthusiasm - That's what every organization desires in their employees. To inspire that motto towards your employee, all you need is a M.I.C.E plan. Every single corporation wants to retreat and do something different that rejuvenates their team spirit. We are here to help and cater to these needs with M.I.C.E options. Choose a destination of your choice, stay in your desired hotel at rock bottom prices and all this without deviating from your work. Because when work turns play, we call it M.I.C.E.

Why Team - building?

It brings all the differences together

1. Let each team member know and appreciate each other and learn each others strengths and weaknesses.
2. It provides a forum to learn how to solve problems and make decisions.
3. It creates an atmosphere where everyone can feel that they contributed to the solutions, or they were a part of the consensus of the group.

Team-building creates a common platform from which all the members can work effectively towards the best possible outcome...

How many types of team-building exercises? We - ExoAsia Travel creates

- Communication exercise: Create an activity which highlights the importance of good communication in team performance and/or potential problems with communication.
- Problem-solving/decision-making exercise: Give team a problem in which the solution is not easily apparent or requires the team to come up with a creative solution
- Planning/adaptability exercise: Show the importance of planning before implementing a solution
- Trust exercise: Create trust between team members

DISCOVER VIETNAM

Vietnam is a country of natural beauty and charming cultures in Southeast Asia. It offers a unique blend of the East and West with plenty of sights, sounds and smells. From the exciting pace of the cities to breathtaking rural landscapes and villages, Vietnam's diversity is astounding. The two largest cities reflect thereby the different faces of the bustling country: Ho Chi Minh City (formerly known as Saigon) is the economic, commercial centre and the country's greatest metropolitan area consisting of a vibrant, modern and high energy lifestyle during Hanoi has been always preserving the reputation as the center of culture and tradition. Nature has blessed Vietnam with bountiful attractions. From the numerous stunning islands and islets rising from the azure waters of Halong Bay, the soaring mountains of the far north with the terraced rice fields around the villages of ethnic minorities to the carpet of emerald-green rice paddies in the south and the narrow canals of the Mekong Delta. The beaches in Central Vietnam are beckoning with 3,300 km of coast line dotted by numerous magnificent beaches in Nha Trang and Mui Ne where you can enjoy beach vacation and some of the most spectacular coastal scenery in all Asia. In Hue and the harbor city of Hoi An you will find history, culture, cuisine, and many centuries-old trading houses. Vietnam is calling out to you with a diverse range of travel experiences that will enthrall the first-time visitors and continually rewards those that return.

TOP EXPERIENCES IN VIETNAM

Hanoi

Hanoi is the second largest city of Vietnam and is referred as the cradle of culture. The capital of Vietnam is a city of lakes, shaded boulevards and public parks. The Old Quarter is a maze of narrow streets evolved from an archaic craftsmen village where workshops were organized by trades or guilds. Hanoi still retains the charms of the past mixed up with the buzzing urban lifestyle. However, you will be surprised not only because of its art and history but also deeply impressed by the everyday life, which often takes place on the street.

Halong

Listed by UNESCO as a World's Heritage Site, Ha Long Bay is a natural wonder with exceptional beauty of submerged limestone mountains and karst pillars. A bay cruise in Halong offers an opportunity to see magnificent scenery and splendid caverns. The magnificent Halong Bay will surely leave a deep impression on you. Cruise on traditional wooden junks past the hundreds of islands would be unforgettable memories.

Sapa

In the northwest mountains, Sapa is situated in an idyllic location between the Hoang Lien Son mountains and paddy fields on endlessly stepped rice terraces. Sapa had long been the market place for the surrounding montagnard villages before the French built a town around and made it a station for holidays and expeditions. Today, Sapa offers greatest treks of a lifetime, authentic interaction with local cultures and fascinating visit to colorful tribal markets.

Hoi An

The beautiful city remained relatively untouched by the Vietnam War. Hoi An is known worldwide for its colorful lanterns, narrow streets and low wooden buildings with peculiar tiled roofs, dating from the first half of the 19th century. Many buildings have already been recognized as historically significant. The old town was from the 17th to the early 19th century, one of the most important port cities of South-east Asia.

Hochiminh

Ho Chi Minh City has grown to be Vietnam's largest metropolitan area and the commercial capital. It's a city of extraordinary energy with busy streets with countless street vendors, cyclos, food stalls, shops and markets. Hotel de Ville, General Post Office and Saigon Notre-Dame Basilica, these landmark buildings are perhaps the most ornate of all colonial structures in the city.

OVERVIEW

This 10 day tour takes us from North to South Vietnam while taking in a myriad of culinary delights in Hanoi, Halong Bay, Hoi An, Hue and Ho Chi Minh City. The tour begins in Hanoi with a city tour and a cookery lesson in the heart of Hanoi's old quarter. We continue on from Hanoi to the world famous Halong Bay to enjoy an overnight cruise with Vietnamese seafood feasts. A short flight to Danang in central Vietnam takes us to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Hoi An, one of the most charming and beautiful towns in Southeast Asia. Here we can enjoy glorious food at many of Hoi An's superb restaurant, but it is also near to Hoi An where we learn all about the cultivation of rice in a local village, as well as learning the art of pancakes at a local home. From here we head north to Hue, another beautiful UNESCO World Heritage Site where we enjoy a wonderful cookery lesson but also an Exclusive Dinner Party at the lovely Tha Om Garden House. The tour ends in Ho Chi Minh City, previously known as Saigon, for more excellent dining opportunities and incredible street food. Would you rather go from North to South? Please contact us.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

DISCOVER CAMBODIA

Situated in the southwest of the Indochinese peninsula, Cambodia remained hidden from the outside world for much of the last century. Now emerging from years of isolation, the country has come back to show the whole world its beauty and mystery and offers a true taste of Southeast Asia. Representing the glorious Khmer civilization and one of the most spectacular historical sites in Asia, the remains of this empire can be seen at the fabled temples ruins of Angkor and monuments unrivalled in scale and grandeur in South East Asia. In addition to the famous ruins of the Angkor dynasty, Cambodia is home to a wealth of exceptional off the beaten path locations. A southern coastline flaunting stunning beaches, scenic cruises along the Mekong and voyages onto Asia's largest freshwater lake, Tonle Sap, add several other dimensions to the Cambodia tour experience. Explore Cambodia's rich culture, from the captivating temples of Angkor in Siem Reap to the National Museum and Royal Palace in the capital. Moving out of the cities enjoy luscious countryside and authentic home-stays, Cambodia will steal your heart and enrich your spirit with culturally immersive vacation.

TOP EXPERIENCES IN CAMBODIA

Angkor

Jungle-clad temples are calling out to be explored, Indiana Jones style, at the ancient ruins of Angkor. Discover archaeology on a vast scale at this UNESCO World Heritage Site, ruined in the 15th century and one of the most famous and important sites in the world. From the most well-known temple, Angkor Wat, to the far reaches of this sprawling 400 square kilometers site, there's no shortage of ornate carvings and hidden corners waiting to be discovered. Witnessing the sun rising over these atmospheric ruins is truly a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

Phnom Penh

Phnom Penh, the largest city in Cambodia, has been its capital since French colonial days. Once known as "the pearl of Asia," Phnom Penh is considered one of the prettiest of the cities the French built in Indochina though the city is still recovering from war and revolution. French influence can still be found today. Located on the Mekong River, the city actually dates back to the 15th century. Top attractions include the Royal Palace and the National Museum, which contains a large collection of Khmer artifacts. The night market or Phsar Reatrey is a good place to pick up handcrafted items and souvenirs.

Battambang

It may be the second largest city in Cambodia, but Battambang's charming architecture and quaint cafes help give it the atmosphere of somewhere much smaller. Discover art galleries in elegant colonial buildings, and wander along the Sangkae River. On the hills around the city, experience a moment of calm in a little-visited temple, and see if you can work out why Battambang is known as the "rice bowl of Cambodia"

Kep

Magnificent sunsets, sandy beaches, flavorsome crab: Kep has everything you need for a relaxing seaside escape. Travel here and you'll be following in the footsteps of wealthy colonials, for whom the town was built as a seaside resort made up for luxurious villas. The empty shells of those villas are still there, an eerie reminder of the town's destruction at the hands of the brutal Khmer Rouge regime. Like the rest of Cambodia, Kep has emerged from that dark phase of its history, but the past still feels present in this atmospheric town.

Sihanoukville

With several white sandy beaches, clear blue waters, and a national park nearby, Sihanoukville is slowly emerging as one of Southeast Asia's premier beach destinations. Whether its water sports or relaxing spas that you crave, this sleepy southern Cambodian town has just what you're looking for. Situated in the center of a small peninsula on the Gulf of Thailand, Sihanoukville town is surrounded by several palm tree-lined beaches and filled with things to do. For the ultimate in relaxation, enjoy a massage at one of the town's luxury spas and bask in the sun at the private Sokha beach. Or, spend the day doing watersports before hitting the lively bar-lined Ochetuel beach at night. Nearby are several uninhabited islands which are easily accessible from Sihanoukville.

DISCOVER LAOS

Famous for its relaxed atmosphere, Laos is one of Asia's most laidback and charming destinations. Visitors today encounter a simple society with a strong spiritual tradition where the stresses and strains of the modern world seem irrelevant. The country moves at a pace as languid as the Mekong River that flows through it. Towns are less hectic than elsewhere in Asia and the countryside is a combination of beauty and tranquility. Despite increased interest from the outside world, Laos still remains the undiscovered gem of Asia. The landlocked nation of a little over six million people exudes a delightful, almost other-worldly charm and reminds one of a simpler, easier time. Come to Laos to experience the rolling mountains, remote villages, tribal crafts, the magic of the Mekong, to enjoy getting to know Laos' friendly and hospitable people, sample delicious Lao cuisine incorporating fresh local herbs and spices, and to embrace the country's slow and peaceful way of life. Open your heart, open your mind, and let the genuine faith and generous hospitality of Laos replenish your soul.

TOP EXPERIENCES IN LAOS

Vientiane

Despite being the largest city in Laos and the hub of commerce and administration, Vientiane is still refreshingly laid back and one of Southeast Asia's quietest capital cities with a recorded history that stretches back to around 1,000 AD. Hugging a wide bend of the Mekong River, it looks more like a rambling collection of villages, dotted with a few grandiose monuments, than the engine room of a nation. The capital city delivers a relaxing riverside break where one of the best things you can do is grab a drink and enjoy the sun's spectacular show as it sets over the Mekong, after a day spent discovering interesting places like Pha That Luang.

Luang Prabang

At the joining of the Mekong and Khan Rivers, surrounded by the jungle, lies the charming town of Luang Prabang, where golden temples mingle with faded French colonial buildings in what feels like a meeting of cultures. This former Royal capital still remains the main centre for Buddhist learning in Laos and is the perfect location for spiritual contemplation. Explore this sleepy town on foot and breathe in the fragrance of exotic flowers as you discover its secrets. Witness local life at Phousi market, and gain an insight into the country's religious history by watching a dawn alms ceremony performed by monks in robes of striking saffron.

Xieng Khouang

Very little is known about the ancient civilization that left thousands of megalithic stone jars strewn across the Xieng Khouang Plateau, but local legends more than compensate for the knowledge gaps. It's thought that the jars date back as far as 500 BC, and they were probably prehistoric burial urns. Take a tour with a local guide and discover the colorful tales that bring this mysterious landscape to life.

4,000 Islands

Lose yourself in rural Laos with a languid waterborne foray into the 4,000 Islands of the South, where you might be lucky enough to spot the elusive Irrawaddy dolphin. Hop on a bike to explore the three main islands, and take the opportunity to relax by lying back in a gently swaying hammock to enjoy a good book.

Pakse

This quiet town by the Mekong River is your base for adventures in Southern Laos, though it's worth setting aside some time to enjoy the town itself; wander round the local market and enjoy a cocktail by the river. Beyond Pakse, the coffee plantations and majestic waterfalls of the Bolaven Plateau are waiting to be explored.

DISCOVER MYANMAR

Myanmar, formerly known as Burma, is recognized by the world as the Golden Land and "quite unlike any land you will ever know". Warm, friendly locals make you feel welcome in Burma, a country that's only just come out of years of political isolation. Still largely untouched by the trappings of tourism, Burma offers a rewarding and authentic experience for adventurous travelers. Plunge yourself into Burmese culture by visiting its greatest treasures, such as the glittering Shwedagon Pagoda, or the archaeological ruins of the enigmatic Plains of Bagan. Experience the country's natural beauty at serene Inle Lake, and witness the unchanged lifestyle of the locals who make their home in its floating villages. Discover the cultural treasures of the exotic east on a Burma vacation, from temple-strewn landscapes to atmospheric floating villages.

TOP EXPERIENCES IN MYANMAR

Yangon

Myanmar's former capital Yangon is one of the most attractive destinations while traveling in Asia. Wherever you go in Yangon, you can't miss the glittering Shwedagon Pagoda; with its sparkling diamonds and gleaming golden stupa. It dominates the former Burmese capital, known previously as Rangoon. Giving the sense of a meeting of cultures, this 2,600-year-old structure contrasts with fading British colonial buildings – passt which you might see monks strolling in their purple robes, or barefoot local people chewing on their betel nuts.

Bagan

Nothing can prepare you for the unbelievable scale of the archaeology-strewn landscape of Bagan: thousands of temples cover the plains, as far as the eye can see. It's so vast that you can only really appreciate its extent by taking to the air, and a peaceful balloon flight over the ruins at dawn is an unforgettable experience. Spend the day exploring the site on foot and discover the frescoes and statues that still decorate these beautifully preserved temples. As the sun goes down, witness the changing colours in the warm orange glow.

Inle Lake

Observe scenes of rural Burmese life among the characteristic stilted houses of Inle Lake, where you can take a waterborne exploration of the famous floating villages. Enterprising locals run cottage industries from which you can buy souvenirs to take home with you, but the real appeal of a journey around Inle Lake lies in being able to witness a traditional way of life – in particular the fishermen, who have their own distinctive styles of "leg rowing".

Mandalay

A name synonymous with the exotic east, Mandalay is a cultural and religious centre on the Irrawaddy River, and it's full of treasures waiting for you to discover. The most prominent site in this last royal capital of the land of golden pagodas could be the Kuthodaw Pagoda, where Buddhist inscriptions cover 729 stupas to form what's affectionately known as the biggest book in the world and the picturesque bridge of Ubein in the ancient village in Amarapura (considered the longest teak wood bridge as well as the place has the most brilliant sunsets in the world).

Ngapali Beach

Enjoy a beach escape at Ngapali, where immaculate beaches considered the finest in Burma fringe the coast for three kilometers. Relax beneath the palm trees on the sandy beach to the sound of the warm water of the Bay of Bengal, and when you get hungry, savor the taste of the sea in a meal of freshly caught fish.

THAILAND

BANGKOK
CHIANG MAI
CHIANG RAI
SUKHOTHAI
AYUTTHAYA
PHUKET
KOH SAMUI
KRABI
KANCHANABURI
MAE HONG SON

DISCOVER THAILAND

Thailand is one of the world's most beautiful countries and known worldwide as the 'Land of Smiles'. The country's diverse natural landscapes; rich history and Buddhist culture; inspiring buildings, both ancient and modern; world famous cuisine; and warm, hospitable people make Thailand one of the world's most popular destinations. Coming to Thailand to witness how busy and noisy the capital Bangkok with its fast pace of living is; a lively and exciting Pattaya with its sexy shows that can be hardly found anywhere else; a precious pearl-shaped Phuket island with its white sandy beaches; an exotic Phang Nga Bay where James Bond film was shot; a mountainous Chiangmai with ancient temples and their huge statues of Buddha. Thailand has so much to offer that one visit is never enough – you'll want to come back and discover more time after time.

TOP EXPERIENCES IN THAILAND

Bangkok

Beneath Bangkok's soaring skyscrapers lies an array of cultural gems that showcases the stark contrast between ancient and modern in Thailand's action-packed capital. You can indulge in all the trappings of the present-day-think massive shopping malls and classy restaurants – or you can experience the slower pace of life in the quieter backstreets and tranquil temples. Don't leave without a visit to the opulent Grand Palace.

Chiang Mai

Chiang Mai is another city where you feel the presence of history in amongst the modern buildings. At its heart are the moated Old City walls, while more than 300 temples are scattered across the town, a reminder of the important role religion still plays in the lives of the locals in this former capital of the Lanna Thai kingdom. Shop for souvenirs in charming craft shops and taste the flavors of Thailand in its numerous restaurants. Chiang Mai also provides a gateway to the north-west hills, where you'll find unspoiled villages dotted across the beautiful landscape.

Chiang Rai

This Thailand's most northerly province has a mainly mountainous terrain and helps form the 'Golden Triangle' around the Mekong River which has long been associated with colourful cultures and an illicit opium trade. Chiang Rai is a major draw for tourists keen to experience the region's natural attractions and learn about its place in Thailand's past as well as the culture of the local hill tribes with colorful ethnic minorities, who have migrated into the region during the past 100 years from the Asian interior and have largely preserved their traditional ways.

Phuket

Phuket may be Thailand's best known and most highly developed resort island, but it's not without its fair share of gorgeous scenery. While lively nightlife and exhilarating watersports are abundant down on the beaches, there's still plenty of unspoiled forested mountain scenery when you want to escape the crowds for an adventure into the jungle.

Koh Samui

Almost as famous as Phuket, but thankfully a bit less developed, Koh Samui has a more laid-back atmosphere that retains more of a tropical island vibe. Developers aren't allowed to build higher than the palm trees, so Koh Samui feels more authentic than its brasher neighbor. From here, you can enjoy adventures in the beautiful Angthong National Marine Park and visit some of the area's other islands.
